

Telephone tax not supported

By Jack C. Ventimiglia
Executive editor

GRANITE CITY — The 5 percent telephone tax that generates some $250,000 annually for the city will be opposed by Mayor Von Dee Cruse if he faces a tied vote of the City Council Tuesday.

"I just hope it isn't a tie vote," he said.

CRUSE CAMPAIGNED for mayor last year on a platform that partly included removal of the tax because, he had said, it is a disincentive for businesses to locate here. He said he was right during the campaign, but recent raises for city workers and hirings make it harder to trim the budget.

"But at that time (the campaign) we weren't spending the money we're spending now, with the raises," he said.

On Tuesday, the issue will be raised for the third time since voters overwhelmingly defeated the tax in a non-binding referendum in April 1985. The first vote ended in a 7-7 tie that Cruse broke in favor of eliminating the tax, but the issue resurfaced in August and was defeated 7-5. Second Ward Alderman Pat Schuman, who had earlier opposed the tax, was absent.

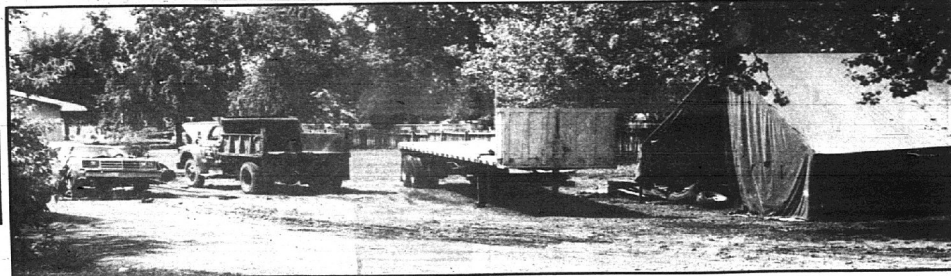

'They're saying, City Council tighten your belt and work with the money you have.'
—Woody Moad

SIXTH WARD Alderman Woody Moad said that his motion to eliminate the tax will include a provision that it not take effect until fiscal 1988 so that it will not impact on the budget being established for this year.

One aldermanic seat has changed since the 7-7 tie. Fourth Ward Alderman Tom Hewlett took over for one of those who voted to keep the tax, Philip Miller, who now works for the city. Hewlett said he is studying the measure to determine how to vote.

"I honestly don't know if it will pass or not," Moad said Saturday, but he said the City Council has an obligation to heed the public.

"WHETHER WE'RE right or wrong, whether the city needs the money, whether the people want the tax gone," Moad said, "they're saying, City Council, tighten your belt and work with the money you have."

Complaint filed over private property use

By Jack C. Ventimiglia
Executive editor

GRANITE CITY — Citizen protests led to a complaint being filed Wednesday against those occupying property at 1142 St. Thomas Road.

The complaint was filed by Madison County Assistant State's Attorney Nelson Metz at the request of the Madison County Building, Environmental and Zoning Department. The department, acting on behalf of area residents, had turned the matter over to Metz.

RESIDENTS STATED their complaint is that a business is operating on residentially-zoned land. A sight inspection of the property Tuesday found a large truck and tent in the front yard of a house.

More than 20 residents signed petitions to call a special meeting of the Chouteau Township Board when they perceived nothing was being done regarding their complaint.

Part of the reason for the delay, Metz said Thursday, was a communication breakdown with the zoning department. He needed clarification of an issue and it took time to get. Additionally, he had been on vacation, and involved in other court cases.

NEWS that the complaint was filed cheered one of the petitioners, Gene Jones.

"Now we know what's going on," he said.

There is no plan to cancel the meeting of residents, Chouteau officials and representatives of the state's attorney's office and zoning department. The issue still needs to be discussed, Jones said Thursday. The meeting will be held at the Township Community Center, 697A N. Thorngate, at 7 p.m. July 28.

ACTION by Metz to file the complaint came after a letter dated April 16 that was sent from the zoning department administrator, Paul T. Hawkins, to John Kampman Sr. at 1142 St. Thomas Road. The letter stated zoning was being violated and legal action could result.

Jones and other residents became concerned after three months because they had heard nothing concerning the status of the complaint.

Annexation hearing slated at courthouse

By Jack C. Ventimiglia
Executive editor

GRANITE CITY — The tug-of-war between Nameoki Township and the city for Granite City Steel's blast furnace will continue in circuit court Monday.

A restraining order pending a hearing on the annexation will be requested, township attorney Irwin Slate said Friday. Unless the court determines otherwise, the city is expected to annex the blast furnace Tuesday.

"THE GIST OF IT is Nameoki Township objects to the annexation because it would be tantamount to the destruction of the township as a government agency and furthermore the contemplation of annexation is a result of certain negotiations and transactions that violate the assessment agreement of Granite City Steel property," Slate said.

He declined to be more specific about the assessment agreement.

If the court grants the order, the delay could stop the city's annexation plan because Gov. James Thompson is reviewing and soon is expected to sign annexation legislation. The legislation would make it more difficult for Granite City and other co-terminous townships to annex into other townships.

"NO, IT (the bill) hasn't been signed yet," a legislative aide to the governor said Friday.

Granite City Steel petitioned last week to come into the city so that, in part, it would have one less government with which to deal. If the co-terminous township annexation law is signed, the company would likely have to deal with the same number.

"I think Granite City Steel has made up their mind that they don't want any part of Nameoki Township government," Mayor Von Dee Cruse said Friday.

THE HEARING Monday concerns Cruse.

"All they're (the township) trying to do is stall," he said. "I'm worried because this is a big thing."

The annexation plan has been conducted according to statutes, Cruse said. Only Long Lake Fire Department had to be notified of the pending annexation and that was done, he said. Nameoki Township Supervisor Harry Briggs wants more time to examine the issue, but Cruse said the law states nothing about having to give it.

"THERE'S NOTHING in the law that states Harry Briggs has to be notified," Cruse said.

The $92,000 in revenue generated by the blast furnace represents some 25 percent of more of the township's tax base, Briggs said Friday. Annexation of the coke plant to Granite City would seriously decrease the township's ability to provide general assistance to the poor and to repair roads.

"We just want to prevent it. It's going to tear up our whole tax structure," Briggs said. "We really couldn't live with this."

"If the blast furnace is removed from Nameoki Township, Nameoki Township will become a hollow shell," Slate said.

CONCERNING A MERGER with the city that Cruse presented earlier this year to officials from the township and Pontoon Beach, Briggs said it doesn't seem likely. "Our people don't want it," he said. "They came out here to build to get out of Granite City."

If the township's tax base is diminished to the point that a merger is required to give township residents adequate service, Slate said there are options other than Granite City.

"GRANITE CITY is not the only government agency to which the territory in Nameoki Township can be annexed," Slate said.

Collinsville, Madison and Pontoon Beach also could annex the township, he said.

"We have to protect ourselves and protect our people," Briggs said.

The hearing in Edwardsville will be held at 1:00 p.m. Monday.

102-year-old remembers the way it was

By Bill Bagby

GRANITE CITY — In 1883, Chester A. Arthur was president. The telephone was 7 years old. The Civil War had been over for 18 years. And Tura Grove was born.

Grove, who has lived in Granite City, Madison and Venice, will be 103 years old July 31.

Born in Kane, Ill., she has three daughters, 11 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and 38 great-great-grandchildren.

GROVE RECENTLY returned to Granite City from her home in California to visit her 80-year-old daughter, Juanita Brown, and her 46-year-old granddaughter, Judy Werths.

Her late son-in-law, Wensel Brown, served as superintendent of the Madison school district and, earlier, superintendent of the Granite City elementary school district.

Grove remembers the old-fashioned days before television, radio and stereo.

"We would just play out in the yard and work," she said. "We used to go to dances and visit the relatives."

She does remember when her brother got a radio—with a horn speaker.

EVEN SLEEPING was different, she said, with straw and featherbeds.

"There were more bedbugs in those days," Grove said. "You never hear about them now."

"She also remembers when grocery orders were phoned into the store, or when customers went to the counter and store employees got the merchandise for them."

In the early 1930s, Grove moved to California. She said food prices there were much lower than today. Pork chops were 10 cents a pound, bread was 10 cents a loaf and coffee was 25 cents a pound.

"BUT YOU ONLY got 25 cents an hour when you worked, too," she said.

One of her fondest memories,

Sunday focus

however, is of her first ride in a DC-3 airplane in 1942. Today, she flies in a jet, by herself, for her yearly visit with her family in Granite City.

"I don't know any difference (being in an airplane) than being in an automobile," Grove said. She has enjoyed good health in her 102 years, though her eyesight and hearing are failing. She was 87 years old the first time she was in the hospital, suffering from a broken hip.

SHE HAS NO one secret for her longevity, Grove said. She owes it all to keeping busy, sleeping well, eating well (especially onions and garlic) and taking care of her own business, she said.

"Anything I wanted to do, I did it," Grove said.

Though many people believe the family unit is weakening, she thinks there have been positive changes in the family over the years.

"I think families are more affectionate than they were," she said. "People are more loving and closer together than they were."

HER REFLECTIONS include thoughts of the closeness within REMEMBERING the past and looking toward the future is 102-year-old Tura Grove, who will be 103 July 31. She lived in the Quad-City Area until moving to California in the early 1930s.

her own family.

"I'm blessed to have had her this long," said Grove's daughter, Juanita Brown. "I think God's been good to me."

"The whole family has a sense of pride to have Grandma with us," said her granddaughter, Judy Werths.

"We have learned, no matter how old you are, the family is important. She's shown us she's got enough love for all."

Hagnauer defends trip to convention

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board, has defended a trip 18 county officials took to Las Vegas for a convention last weekend.

"I don't think there's any need to apologize for anything," Hagnauer said at Wednesday's full county board meeting.

The trip to the annual convention of the National Association of Counties will cost Madison County about $13,500.

Expenses for the trip were $175 each for registration, $69.55 a night for hotel rooms, $198 for round-trip air fare and $35 a day for expenses.

County Board members attending included Hagnauer, William Little of Alton, Robert Churchich of Alton, Roy Kuehnell of East Alton, Alan Dunstan of Troy, Robert Stille of Edwardsville.

Nick Hamilos of Edwardsville, Herbert Milton of Granite City, Fred Dalton of Collinsville, William Webb of Granite City, William Aery of Godfrey, Homer Henke of Moro, Rudy Papa of Bethalto and Herschel Beane of Godfrey.

Countywide elected officials attending included Treasurer Michael Henkhaus, Recorder of Deeds Ronald Lucas, Circuit Clerk Willard Portell and Harold Briggs, regional superintendent of schools. Henkhaus and Briggs accepted awards at the meeting.

Hagnauer said: "I'll take the blame for the number of people going, since the board chairman has final approval for the number."

Hagnauer said he thought the cost was worth it when compared to the things the officials learned about juvenile and adult crime, the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings budget-balancing bill, insurance, community development and job training.

"We learned a lot," Hagnauer said. "I don't think it cost the county too much for what we learned."

He recommended that members of the various committees make a full report in committee to those who did not attend.

But a report of the trip to the full board will not be made, he said, unless he deems it necessary.

Hagnauer admonished some newspapers for reporting the group's departure day.

"I didn't appreciate that and I don't think any of the others who went appreciated it, either," he said.

Hagnauer said he thought making the departure time public had left county officials' homes vulnerable to attack by "any hoodlum in the county."

Contract questioned

By Bill Milligan

BELLEVILLE — Trustees objected to terms of Chancellor Bruce Wissore's new three-year contract last week.

Member Elizabeth Jenner asked that a review of Wissore's contract be placed on the agenda for the July 16 meeting, but when President Wayne Reynolds came to the item he questioned why it was there.

Wissore's three-year contract was extended six months, along with other administrative pacts, in April. The next possible review, Reynolds said, would take place in October.

"WE DIDN'T SEE this contract before we approved it," Jenner said.

Trustees questioned Wissore over the process by which administrative contracts are written.

Budget problems, contract negotiations, sewer breaks and reorganization continue to plague the City Council despite double sessions this week. A Monday budget trimming session actually increased the city's budget by more than $7,000. The biggest increase is in sewer repairs. Sewers will cost the city $212,000 this year.

Worse than a nuke?

"Hitler pulled his punches." I thought that would get your attention.

While public concern in the United States relates to the nuclear threat, the Soviets already have a more terrible weapon in their arsenal: lethal chemicals.

"These are weapons which kill with brutal efficiency. Target populations are altogether as dead as from radiation — yet chemical weapons then dissipate, enabling the attacker to move in and take over."

The United States is poorly prepared for chemical warfare. Thomas O'Boyle, for the Wall Street Journal, did an audit of our nation's chemical weapons outnumbers and aging. "Found that the Soviet arsenal of chemical weapons is three to four times larger than ours. Russia might now have chemical agents stored in 30 different locations in Eastern Europe."

The Soviet army has vehicles that shield their occupants from gas; has 20 times as many decontamination devices, 10 times as many troops in its chemical warfare corps.

Western Europe is highly vulnerable to chemical attack. It may well be that the only factor which has prevented chemical warfare there — or here — is our capability of nuclear retaliation. Unless, of course, we let them talk us out of that.

In World War I chemical weapons — much less sophisticated than today's — were used.

In January 1915, Germany launched a gas attack on Russia. Three months later, Germany was hur-ing gas grenades at our friends on the Western front.

April 22 in Belgium, Germany opened the valves on 5,000 cylinders of chlorine gas and it came rolling in a boiling yellow cloud across our trenches.

In 40 minutes, 5,000 men died. Gas inflicted heavy casualties during World War I and for years afterward. It was such a hideous weapon that in 1935, all nations voted to outlaw it.

It was not used in World War II. German scientists produced the first "nerve gas" in 1936. Hitler could have used it. But he did not. The Nazis assumed — incorrectly — that the United States had also developed nerve gas — and they feared that weapon more than any.

Because once upon a time in a war 20 years before... a German corporal had been rendered totally blind in a gas attack. And though he got over the blindness, he never outlived the terror of it. That corporal was Adolf Hitler.

So Hitler, in World War II, from sheer fear of retaliation in kind, pulled his punches.

You will be hearing that the United States, after a 16-year hiatus, has resumed producing chemical weapons, a second fist in the face of any potential aggressor.

Citizen board fights costs

To the editor:

I was not surprised to read this week that Illinois Power Co. has refused to make another projection of the cost of its "white elephant" nuclear plant at Clinton.

Because of cost overruns, 12 times from their original $429 million figure in 1972 to almost $4 billion at present.

The Illinois Citizens Utility Board testified recently before the Illinois Commerce Commission that IP ratepayers should not pay for $3.7 billion of these cost overruns.

CUB's argument is that IP should have been out of Clinton in 1979, the year of the Three Mile Island accident, when it could have recovered its investments and replaced Clinton with a coal plant.

The argument is based on a study done by Komanoff Energy Associates, a New York consulting firm specializing in nuclear energy economics. Charles Komanoff is a nationally recognized expert on power plant costs whom CUB had hired previously in the Braidwood nuclear case with Commonwealth Edison.

CUB is doing what the legislature set us up to do, hire experts to testify on behalf of the consumer.

Experts like Komanoff cost us a lot of $3 memberships. Now, eight power companies are trying to pull the rug out from under us by taking CUB to court and saying we may no longer put membership applications in along with the utility bills.

This would seriously affect our membership income. And CUB testimony before the ICC can be costly, sometimes these costs are extended when we have to go to court as in the $48 million rate rollback for Commonwealth Edison which may go to the State Supreme Court.

I appeal to CUB members to respond to the recent fundraising letter, especially IP customers who have already realized a $300 saving because of the ICC holding off the latest rate increase.

The present CUB proposal to ICC would save IP customers another $107 a year.

I urge all CUB members to renew their membership and I urge all concerned utility customers to join us in the struggle by sending their contributions, however modest, to: CUB, 108 N. State St., Suite 2102, Chicago, IL 60602.

Voters worry, but party leaders ignore them

The 1986 primary-election results and some privately-circulated polls of the Democratic and Republican parties agree: the hard-core "LaRouche vote" among Democratic voters is between 15 percent and 20 percent, and the probably "LaRouche-leaning vote" approximately twice as large as the hard-core support.

The largest quantity of this voting strength is concentrated among minorities plus "blue-collar" and farm households, with a significant percentage of support from among business and scientifically-oriented professional strata.

Neither I nor this movement have any resemblance to the wild allegations made by Adlai Stevenson or Democratic National Committee Chairman Paul Kirk.

What has been published about me in leading news media over the dozen years before the March 1986 Illinois primary, and most of the news-media coverage after that primary, have almost nothing to do with the reality of my own policies or with the character of the very sizeable minority among Democratic voters supporting the NDPC slate.

Taxpayer assails nepotism, double public jobs

To the editor:

Should local elected officials have a maximum term of service similar to the two-term limit imposed on the U.S. President?

Yes. It would help deter possible inappropriate practices of local-level officials.

Nepotism and "double-dipping" are a gigantic waste of taxpayer money and a classic example of the "truly greedy" taking from the "truly needy."

The money budgeted for political double-dippers might be enough to put more policemen on the street, support children's day care centers, provide shelters for homeless people, etc.

Unfortunately, enacting tough

"ethics laws" has never been a popular subject with our high-priced officials.

Nepotism, the practice by some public officials of hiring their own family members and relatives, is fairly common in Madison County. That doesn't, however, make it right. Rules should be adopted at all governmental levels to prohibit

The majority of American households are essentially conservative, in the sense that they believe in traditional moral values, and they are being intimidated less and less by the radical-liberal factions in our nation's political life.

Theirs is a mood building up in the citizenry, echoing the mood that gave Franklin Roosevelt his landslide victories over Hoover and Landon.

For that reason, during the period into early 1987, my associates and I will continue to have growing influence in defining the issues of the 1988 election campaigns.

It is probable that, beginning this September, the issues raised by NDPC candidates during the spring primaries will be leading issues among both Republican and Democratic contenders in the November elections.

By clinging to the myth — the wild false charges against me — which are the myth — those who ally themselves with Adlai Stevenson and Paul Kirk are ignoring the reality which will soon decide their own political futures.

Stores should observe the hours they post

"Several recent incidents have left me wondering if the hours of operation posted by stores really mean anything or if they post them just to make customers mad."

I have always thought that the times posted mean just what they imply — the times the store opens and closes — not when the store's employees get to work and go home.

Not long ago I rushed to a local drug store to purchase some cough medicine my young son was in need of one night before going to bed. Neither myself nor my wife realized that we were out of cough medicine until it was needed.

The time was 8:45 p.m. and we knew the closest drug store was open until 9, so I quickly left to get there before closing time.

I entered the store around 10 minutes before the posted closing time and went directly to the cough remedies section, picked out the brand we use and headed to the drug peddler.

In his letter, LaRouche takes jabs at Adlai Stevenson and, in a sense, the entire Democratic Party in Illinois by stating up to a quarter of the state's party members are LaRouchites.

magazine rack to browse a minute or two.

All of a sudden the lights went out. Not all of them, but enough to dim the store significantly. So instead of looking at the magazines, which would have been difficult to do anyway, I headed for the check-out area.

Several other customers in the store reacted to the lights being turned off and headed for the cash register too.

As I approached the check-out counter, I noticed a man in the foyer of the store, but didn't know why he was standing there. I paid for the cough syrup and headed for the exit. At the same time a young couple was coming to the door from their car.

This is when I realized what the man was doing in the foyer. He unlocked the door to let the exit, the store, and then refused the couple entrance to the store. By the way, it still was before the posted closing time.

At first I felt angry for having the lights turned out on me and then realizing I was locked in the store. What if a fire had started? How would we have gotten out?

Then I felt even more angry about the man not letting the couple into the store. What if they were in a similar situation like myself, trying to get to the store before closing time to purchase medicine for a sick child?

If the stores aren't going to stay open for business until the posted time, then they should change the time to allow for the employees to close up for the night.

Better yet, if there are employees working the "late shift," they could schedule these workers to come in 15 minutes after the posted closing time to count the money in the cash registers, turn out the lights and do whatever else is needed to close down the store for the night.

Infuriating customers, or potential customers, by doing these things during the posted business hours does not make for good customer relations and can have a negative effect on the business.

And customer relations could stand for improving at most retail outlets. Going that extra mile for a customer can really go a long way in establishing good relations, and good news travels fast.

I've also had my problems with stores opening on time, too, but that's another story.

Lupus patients very ill

To the editor:

There is a disease that is more common than muscular dystrophy, leukemia, or multiple sclerosis. It is estimated 1,000,000 Americans have this disease and 5,000 Americans die from it each year. Although anyone of either sex, any race, or any age can get this disease, it most often affects young women, especially young black women. It is not contagious and is not a form of cancer.

The disease is systemic lupus erythematosus, or SLE, or lupus for short.

Lupus can affect any organ, or multiple organs in the body. Symptoms vary but can include joint pain, muscle aches, skin rash, photosensitivity, hair loss, inflammation of the membranes around the heart or lungs, anemia, fatigue, blood abnormalities, kidney involvement, and others.

Paradoxically, lupus patients often look very healthy and well, even when they are very ill. This frequently creates problems with family and friends who cannot understand how anyone who looks so good can be seriously ill. Many lupus patients feel isolated because of the lack of understanding they encounter.

The L.E. Support Club is a non-profit organization that publishes a bi-monthly journal, the L.E. Beacon, to help lupus victims. It is cited for its work with lupus patients in the latest edition of Lupus Erythematosus, the textbook by the great lupus expert, Edmund L. Dubois, M.D. and his co-worker, Daniel J. Wallace, M.D.

The L.E. Support Club is a nationwide organization with members in all states and several foreign countries. It originated in Isle of Palms, S.C., and is an offshoot of Leanon, the oldest of the national lupus organizations. The founder of Leanon serves on the advisory board, along with a staff of medical advisors who screen all articles for medical accuracy.

Anyone who would like more information about the L.E. Support Club may send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: L.E. Support Club, 3105 N. Hartnett Blvd., Isle of Palms, S.C. 29451.

Some members of the public have been glibly enough to accept criticism of the press rather than placing blame for wrongdoing on

But what lurks within the man? If the media isn't to be trusted to convey accurate information and analysis based in fact, who can?

$9.8 million budget presented at hearing

By Bill Bagby

GRANITE CITY — A proposed $9,820,555 budget for fiscal 1987 for the city was the subject of a public hearing held Tuesday night at Township Hall.

The proposed budget is about $212,000 less than the $10,032,509 budget for fiscal 1986.

Fifth Ward Alderman Jake Varadian, finance committee chairman, served as moderator of the hearing.

HE SAID the city had a $2.2 million carryover from the last fiscal year. A $1 million fund for capital repair, improvement and replacement will be started out of this amount, he added.

Of this $1 million fund, Varadian said, it was possible to utilize $802,605 for costs that had been shown in a $10.6 million tentative city budget. With this amount removed, the $9.8 million budget total resulted.

Revenue for fiscal 1987 is projected at $10,211,057, or $390,502 more than the budgeted expenditures, Varadian said.

However, Varadian estimated that about $140,000 of the $390,502 may be used for pay raises for department heads, sanitation, humane and street department workers, and office workers at City Hall. Negotiations are still in progress, and no raises are included at this time in the proposed budget.

THE BUDGET also includes $263,550 in salaries for 13 new job positions. These include an administrative assistant to Mayor Von Dee Cruse, two new policemen, three police dispatchers, four additional firemen, a public works director and two technicians in the engineering department.

Varadian said whether specific positions will be filled will be evaluated on a "year-by-year basis."

The total expenditure for salaries will increase approximately 4 percent over last year's budget, Varadian said.

Sixth Ward Alderman Woody Moad asked why the position of chief defense director was not budgeted as full-time.

"We (finance committee) did not want that additional expense at this time," Varadian said.

HOWEVER, 1st Ward Alderman Everett Morlan moved, at a meeting of the City Council following the hearing, that a resolution be brought before the council, making the position full-time. The motion was approved 11-2, with Varadian and 3rd Ward Alderman Paul Fisk voting "no" and Brett Hanke absent.

The aldermen are expected to vote on the budget at a meeting next Tuesday, July 22.

Surplus food Wednesday

Officials in Nameoki and Venice townships and at the Salvation Army will give out surplus government commodities July 23.

Commodities will include processed cheese, rice, butter, dry milk, honey, cornmeal and flour, given out on a first-come, first-served basis with ticket number received at the door.

To be eligible to receive commodities, persons must be residents of the township where they are getting the commodities. They must be the head of a household or the spouse, have their Social Security number, and sign an affidavit that their total household income is within the guidelines.

New requirements have been announced. Recipients are to bring an unpaid utility bill, a property tax statement, a current rent receipt with the address, or a public aid card or medical card.

Voter registration cards no longer will be accepted as proof of residency.

Venice Township will give out commodities at 9 a.m. Wednesday, July 23, at Engelbert Hall, 10th Street and Washington Avenue, Madison.

Nameoki Township will give out the surplus food starting at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 23, at the township hall, 228 Illinois 102.

The Salvation Army, 3007 E. 23rd St., will start its distribution of surplus food to Granite City Township residents at 9 a.m. Wednesday, July 23. Recipients will only be allowed to pick up commodities for themselves.

Officials are reminding recipients that money should not be given to children younger than 18 months of age.

There is no discrimination against groups of any kind in the food distribution programs.

Reese workers back on job

Nine workers who were not rehired when Reese Drug Store reopened last November went back to their jobs last month.

A fire destroyed the store and caused smoke damage to several other Bellemeir Village shops on Dec. 26, 1984.

The shop was always under union contract, said Ross Friedman, an attorney for the firm. "Their seniority ended when the shop burned down."

When the store reopened last November, many members of Commerce 1 Workers Local were not rehired. They were asked to return to work during the first week in June.

By mid-June, nine of 12 workers who had filed grievances with the company had reported back to their jobs. The rest were reported to have found other employment, Friedman said.

HE SAID some grievances remained to be settled. "They all seem to be happy," said Harry Dorth, manager of the Bellemeir Village shopping center, where the store was located.

Petish questions Hagnauer's absence

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Another confrontation between John Petish Sr. and Granite City Township trustees took place Tuesday night at Township Hall.

Petish asked Granite City Township Attorney William Schooley to define "coterminous township."

Schooley said a coterminous (or coextensive) township is one where the township boundaries are the same as the city's. In this arrangement, City Council members also serve as township trustees.

"THEN IT'S A duplication of what we got," Petish said. He then asked why Granite City Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer does not preside over the township meetings. Mayor Von Dee Cruse presides over both the township and City Council meetings. Township bylaws, passed at the annual town meeting April 8, state that Cruse will preside over the meetings.

Petish read from a letter he received from the Township Officials of Illinois. The letter said a survey was taken several years ago of coterminous townships. One of the questions asked was if the supervisor presides over and attends township meetings.

Granite City Township did not answer the survey. WHEN PETISH questioned why the township did not answer, Cruse said he did not remember the survey.

Granite City and Alton are the only coterminous townships in Madison County, Petish said; in Alton Township, Supervisor Don Huber chairs the township meeting and Mayor Bert Wuellner chairs the city council meeting.

Petish asked why Hagnauer doesn't attend and chair the township meetings. He requested an answer in writing.

He asked, "Why is Granite City different?"

"THAT QUESTION has been answered before," Cruse said. "Read the state statute instead of the letter from township officials."

Petish continued to speak, but Cruse said Petish was "out of order" and asked him to sit down. Petish tried to speak several times again, but was told each time by Cruse to sit down. Petish finally went back to his seat.

Trustee Woody Moad defended Petish's comments on Hagnauer's absence from the meetings. "I don't like it," Moad said, "but I have to live with it."

Council defers action on upgrading worker

GRANITE CITY — Action to upgrade an employee in City Treasurer Nick Petrillo's office was deferred Tuesday night by the Granite City Council.

In a letter to the council, Petrillo asked that secretary Gale Valle be advanced from grade six to grade seven on a graduated pay scale effective July 15. The upgrading would mean a raise in salary.

FIRST WARD Alderman Casmer Skubish moved that Valle be upgraded; as Petrillo recommended.

"I think the city treasurer should know his staff," Skubish said.

However, 5th Ward Alderman Jake Varadian suggested that Skubish reconsider his motion and the request be turned over to the finance and negotiation committees.

"YOU'RE TAKING this out of the negotiation committee's hands," said 7th Ward Alderman Jeff Worthen.

Worthen, chairman of the negotiation committee, said Thursday negotiations would be starting Wednesday, July 23, with the city's white dollar workers. "If they (the council) would have passed it, it would have undermined negotiations," Worthen said.

"YOU GUYS have been fooling around too long negotiating," said 1st Ward Alderman Everett Morlen, who seconded Skubish's motion.

Varadian asked Skubish to withdraw his motion and Morlen to withdraw his second. When the two aldermen refused to comply, Varadian moved to defer action on the matter.

Petrillo said in the letter he believed Valle should be upgraded in her position as secretary for the following reasons:

"HER PRIMARY function is to perform secretarial and record keeping functions for the treasurer. She is responsible for general supervisory functions for other departmental clerks in my absence."

Valle also oversees the sales taxes, sewer collections and real estate taxes, Petrillo said. She assists in maintaining running bank balances in the pension funds and reconciles nearly all bank balances.

Other duties include preparing monthly and annual reports to Mayor Von Dee Cruse and the city council plus making daily bank deposits for all revenue, Petrillo said.

It doesn't cost much to Stay Cool.

Ice Cream. Luscious, cooling and a delightful way to stay cool in the summertime. You can buy a triple scoop cone for about $1.80, and, if you eat it in 10 minutes, your cost of staying cool is about 18 cents per minute. That's a bargain, until you consider the cost of cooling your home for 24 hours...because the typical home can be cooled for much less than a penny per minute. Or about $2.10 a day. Any way you look at it, air conditioning is a good value. It's the cost efficient way to stay cool.

If you have questions about using air conditioning efficiently and affordably, contact your Marketing Advisor at Illinois Power.

Q. In the past, you've cautioned against co-signing for loans. I wonder if you would explain exactly what risk the co-signer assumes and, are there any figures which indicate how often co-signed loans are defaulted. I've been asked to co-sign a personal loan for a friend, and I'm trying to exercise the caution you've suggested.

A. It's good practice to go into a co-signing arrangement with your eyes open, and also to be able to say "no" to a friend if you don't feel that the situation is in your best interests. You must realize that if the borrower can't (or won't) repay the loan, the lender can hold you responsible not only for the debt in the form of the original principal, but also the "interest," any late charges plus any court costs and attorney's fees incurred in collecting the debt. How many such loans are defaulted leaving the co-signer "holding the bag"? Many more than you would expect. Almost 50 percent of the persons who co-sign loans are asked to pay for them.

Impatience spawns a wild-goose chase. LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 7- You can't outguess nature! Accept the hand that is dealt you this week; it leads to something you greatly desire. Oct. 8-Oct. 22- You may have to foot more than your share of the expenses this week. Your reward comes later. SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 7- Good news from afar makes your week - but not until you've gone through a few days of doubt. Nov. 8-Nov. 21- So long as your effort keeps pace with your ambition, this should be a week worth writing home about. SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 7- Where problems are concerned, this is definitely a week of deja vu. For best results, try new solutions. Dec. 8-Dec. 21- One you thought to be a good influence on the young may prove this week to be quite the contrary. CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 6- This is not the week to rework old material. If you can't try something new, loaf and enjoy yourself. Jan. 7-Jan. 19- The approval you have long sought may well be yours by week's end. Rigorous attention to duty pays off! AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 3- Creative projects are favored.

You provide the labor and Lady Luck will go to work for you! Feb. 4-Feb. 18- Success requires more exertion on your part than usual this week. Personal relationships thrive on attention. PISCES Feb. 19-March 5- Concentrate on matters affecting the young. You can help to transform a failure into a success! March 6-March 20- Family members cling stubbornly to methods of operation that cause tension in the home. Try persuasion. ARIES March 21-April 4- Don't rail too much against the week's ills. In the long run, they will be seen to bring permanent good. April 5-April 19- Turn your attention to those matters that make a difference to the family as a whole. Finances improve. TAURUS April 20-May 5- An unsettled week should help finances in ways you little expect. Accept a challenge to memory. May 6-May 20- Any outstanding transactions should be taken care of before week's end. New opportunity beckons; prepare. GEMINI May 21-June 6- Instructions are deceptively simple. Use your own judgment rather than another's this week. June 7-June 20- Though no new problems rear their unwelcome heads, old ones confuse more than one issue this week.

write his own contract, does he?" said Larry Reinneke, trustee.

Wissore said he had outlined the contents of administrative contracts and turned over the information to board attorney Thomas Alvey.

Alvey said that, after writing the contracts, he returned them to the school administration.

"What they did with them after that, I don't know," Alvey said.

JENNER OBJECTED to provisions in the contract allowing Wissore to receive additional education called professional development.

She also took exception with tenure, retirement and vacation pay clauses in the contract.

"He has a clause in his contract which allows him to pursue any development he feels would contribute to his duties," Jenner said.

"All he has to do is get the approval of the chairman," Jenner said.

Alvey said all she was asking was to be informed of Wissore's intent to pursue additional education and the cost the college would be expected to pay.

SHE INTERPRETS Wissore's tenure clause to mean he is earning teacher tenure while being an administrator.

"When you become an administrator, you forfeit some of the rights that are given to teachers," she said. "In the event he would want to return to teaching, he shouldn't have the same seniority as a teacher who had been in the classroom during that time."

A petition circulated in the Mascoutah area was signed by 530 persons who want Wissore's resignation.

Alvey told the board members they could not make any change in Wissore's position until October. At that time the board options would be to ratify the agreement as is; amend the contract to both parties' liking; or not extend the contract.

IF THE CONTRACT were not extended, Alvey said, the board would have 2½ years to try and come to an agreement.

"I object highly to portions of this contract," said Reinneke. "Right now, we (trustees) who object to Wissore's contract are in the minority. All we can do is wait until October and hope there is a change in the vote."

Taracorp settles strike

By Bill Milligan
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — More than 80 Taracorp workers returned to their jobs Wednesday after a week-long strike.

Workers ratified a 14-month contract Tuesday by a 2-1 margin. The agreement calls for a 3 percent wage hike and what General Manager Tony Lindsay called "more liberal work rules."

MEMBERS of Steelworkers Union Local 6496 walked off their jobs on July 8 seeking a 5 percent wage increase, better insurance and preservation of seniority rights, said Local 6496 spokesman Lester Morgan.

Morgan said more liberal work rules mean the company wants to "move workers from one job to another."

"There has been no significant change in seniority," Lindsay said.

The contract preserves insurance benefits for active employees, but terminates coverage for laid-off workers, Morgan said.

"WE'RE PLEASED with the contract," said Lindsay. "We're pleased to have the steelworkers back on the job."

Lindsay said some orders were being filled by Taracorp plants in Atlanta and in Winston-Salem, N.C.

"We were able to keep all our orders," Lindsay said. "Some were delayed. Some were transferred. The strike had no adverse effect on company profitability."

THE COMPANY maintained its Granite City operation with salaried personnel, Lindsay said. Taracorp produces Lawrence brand lead shot for shotgun reloads, powdered metals and solder.

Morgan said workers received letters on Monday notifying them they would be terminated if they did not return to work by Wednesday.

"I don't know if that had any effect on their decision or not," Morgan said. "I presented the proposal and they accepted it."

Pre-registration is also available. Registration forms are on hand at many sites, including Earl's Sports, YMCA of Southwest Illinois — Life Adventures, Big Sisters of Southwestern Illinois, the latter at 10025 Bunkum Road, Fairview Heights.

All participants must sign a waiver of responsibility and persons under the age of 18 must have a parent or legal guardian sign the waiver for them.

Senior committee still looking for staff person

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — A part-time staff person is still being sought to assist Granite City's senior citizens committee.

At a meeting July 16 at City Hall, Chairman Bill Burckly said a staff person had not yet been hired since the committee decided to hire someone June 11.

Burckly and committee members Nan Henderson and Emylee Alford checked with Belleville Area College, the Alton Senior Citizens Center and SIUE for candidates with negative results, he said.

HOWEVER, Burckly told the committee he is looking into the possibility of obtaining a practicum student from the gerontology department of SIUE for the position.

Since most of the students in the program are older students, Burckly said the $3.50 per hour salary given in a job description may not be enough.

The committee decided to raise the salary to no more than $4 per hour and gave Burckly authority to ask for funding for the staff person.

Burckly will present a proposed contract for the staff person to Mayor Von Dee Cruse for approval.

BEFORE SOMEONE can be hired, approval must be given by the township board since money for the salary will come from the town fund.

"I think we need to get started on this," said committee member Frank Kraus. "The sooner you get this going, the better."

"I hope we get this thing rolling," said committee member Juanita Crawley.

The staff person will be required to visit area agencies providing senior citizen services. He or she will determine services being offered, services not being offered, sources of funding and grants to the agency and the type of staff the agency has.

THE STAFF PERSON will then submit a written report of his findings within six months from the beginning of the contract with the committee.

The report will help determine if senior services being duplicated and services not being offered at all.

The committee is scheduled to meet again on Wednesday, Aug. 13. Burckly said he hopes a staff person will be hired and on the job before the next meeting.

146 attend Venice summer youth recreation program

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

The largest group of youngsters to take part in a Venice Park District summer recreation program is being recorded this year, Charles Collins, recreation director, told the Board of Park Commissioners at its meeting Thursday night.

A total of 146 young people attended the program every day, Collins said. The sessions conclude in mid-August.

MOST PARTICIPANTS also are taking advantage of the free mid-day food program, he said.

About 163 children and teens are being served a nutritious meal Monday through Friday in the Venice school cafeteria.

Some teenagers employed in the summer youth work program at Venice High School, the city garage and the McKinley Bridge also are being served the free meal, Collins said.

A CONTRACTOR from the Illinois Department of Education came down from Springfield for three days and was very pleased how it (program) was arranged," Collins said.

"She came down here to see the food being prepared and served and also went through the files and she was pleased."

"The kids also made me feel very proud, too. They kept the noise down and are working real well with me this year," the recreation director said.

ABOUT 25 YOUNGSTERS, 12 to 18 years old, took part in a basketball camp the past two weeks conducted by VHS Coach Ed Harris. Collins reported. The daily sessions were held in Lee Park.

In other business, the park commissioners accepted the resignation from a report of the Rev. John Henry Williams.

Anna Claggett, who succeeded Rev. Williams as board president, said an appointment to fill the minister's unexpired term will be made at the August meeting.

Mrs. Claggett also announced tentative plans for the park district and City of Venice to co-sponsor a "health fair" in October.

"I'VE TALKED to Mayor (Tyronne) Echoles about this idea and he said he would support it. We had a fair once before and it turned out really well," she said.

Nurses and other medical people interested in volunteering their services to help during the event are being asked to contact the Venice Park office at 451-7201 during business hours and leave their name and phone number.

Proposed are visual and hearing tests and blood pressure readings, all to be offered without charge, she said.

Senior event slated at township building beginning at 7 p.m. All seniors, 55 years old and over, are invited.

Transportation for the event is available by calling council President Juanita Crawley at 877-7099 before Friday, July 25.

Manslaughter charge is filed against man

VERSAILLES, Mo. — An involuntary manslaughter charge has been filed against the operator of a boat that collided with another boat on July 4, killing an 8-year-old Granite City girl.

Thomas Stegeman, 59, of Lohman, Mo., was charged Thursday, July 10, with the death of Angela Briggs, 8, who was the daughter of Ronald and Patricia Briggs of 2413 Wilson Ave. and the granddaughter of Nameoki Township Supervisor Harry Briggs Sr.

Stegeman was arraigned Wednesday morning in Missouri County Circuit Court at Versailles, a court clerk said. Stegeman posted $2,500 cash bail and was released.

A preliminary hearing in the case has been set for Monday, Aug. 25, the clerk said.

The charge was filed following an investigation by the Missouri Water Patrol.

The accident occurred at 10:50 p.m. July 4 on the Lake of the Ozarks at Laurie, Mo.

Stegeman was operating a 31-foot speedboat which collided with a 17-foot runabout, operated by Michael Marcum, 26, of Godfrey. Angela Briggs was a passenger on the smaller boat.

The bows of the two boats struck each other, authorities said. Some of the adults on the boats allegedly had been drinking.

Eight people on Stegeman's boat were injured in the collision. Six on Marcum's boat were also injured, including Brandy Briggs, 8, of Godfrey, a cousin of Angela. Brandy was taken to the University of Missouri Medical Center, Columbia, where she was released July 9. She suffered a skull fracture and other injuries in the collision.

Angela was believed to have died immediately due to injuries suffered in the crash.

Police investigating 3 purse snatchings

GRANITE CITY — Three purse snatchings which occurred on State Street last week are being investigated by Granite City authorities.

"We are looking for a suspect at this time believed to be involved in the purse thefts," said Police Chief Bill Harris.

The three victims described the purse thefts as being committed by a teenager. But Harris said investigators believe the person may not be a teen.

The first incident occurred at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 15. The victim, Ruth Thornton, 60, of 919 Washington Ave., Madison, told police she was sitting at a bus stop at 24th and State streets when a teenager grabbed her purse and fled west on 24th Street.

Ah, iced tea. It's cool, refreshing, and inexpensive. You can buy a glass for about 50 cents, and if you drink it in 15 minutes, your cost of staying cool is about 3 1/2 cents per minute. It seems like a bargain until you consider the cost of cooling your home for 24 hours. The typical home can be cooled for much less than a penny per minute. At $2.10 a day. Triplets eliminated by Collinsville

Post 365 gets three in 7th to stun GC, 3-2

By Jim Woodcock

COLLINSVILLE — For six innings Thursday night at Fletcher Field, it appeared the only way Granite City could have lost its playoff game against Collinsville Post 365 was if the Triplets gift-wrapped runs for their opponents.

In the true spirit of giving, that is what Granite City did.

In one of the most stunning collapses in a baseball game at any level, the Triplets watched a once well-protected 2-0 lead crumble away in horrific fashion in the bottom of the seventh to Post 365, which swiped a 3-2 victory and moved on to the double elimination District 22 North Division playoff round.

The manner in which the Triplets ended their season Thursday was so brutal, it even had Post 365 Coach Otto Daech feeling sorry for the visitors.

"I've never felt this bad in my life for someone we beat," Daech said.

Daech was the first to admit the Triplets, after silencing his team most of the game, handed Post 365 just about every possible opportunity available to pull the game out of the fire in the seventh.

"But I have to give our kids credit," Daech said. "Winning pitcher Jon Sherry threw a heck of a game. The kid can pitch. We played errorless ball again."

"We got breaks in the seventh. That goes without saying. But Keith Brooke lays down a perfect bunt in that inning? That was the key to the game? And that enabled Danny Kolb to drive in the tying runs."

Here's how it happened that Collinsville advanced to the double elimination bracket instead of Granite City:

In the bottom of the seventh, designated hitter Craig Gutjahr (hitting in the No. 9 slot) faced Scott LeVault, who by that time had held Post 365 to four hits and pitched out of jams that left seven Collinsville runners stranded in scoring position.

GOOD CUT: Fred Becker of the Triplets has a good swing at a pitch during Post 113's 8-3 win over Troy in the opening game of the District 22 North Division playoffs Wednesday night in Collinsville.

LeVault fanned Gutjahr, who flipped his bat in the air and started trotting gingerly toward the dugout. When his teammates shouted that catcher Doug Partney dropped the ball, Gutjahr straightened up and ran toward first.

Partney threw high to first baseman John Moad, who had the ball skip off the top of his glove and into right field. Gutjahr proceeded to second and Paul Hayes followed with a walk.

Brooke squared away immediately at the plate and deadened a perfect sacrifice bunt that moved the runners to second and third. The sacrifice brought up Danny Kolb, who had struck out in his previous three trips to the plate.

However, this time Kolb laced a deep shot to the right field alley that no one came close to reaching. The ball skipped either over or through the fence for a ground rule double that drove in Gutjahr and Hayes with the tying runs.

"He hit a rope. There was nothing cheap about that one. And he went down and went with the pitch."

City manager Dave Coakley then brought in Mark Bowen to relieve LeVault, who moved to first. Bowen intentionally walked Bob Bane and induced Frank Bennett to pop out to left for CONGRATULATIONS: In what was to be the Triplets' last happy walk off the field this year, manager Dave Coakley shakes the hand of winning pitcher Eric Gray after Wednesday's win over Troy at Varsity Field. the second out.

Tim Burgess then got behind on the count before he tapped the easiest of rollers to the new first baseman, LeVault, who was right by the bag. It appeared the Triplets would extend the game to extra innings, but the lazy grounder clanked off LeVault's ankle and everyone was safe with the bases loaded.

Bowen then walked Joe Lang on five pitches to force Kolb home with the winner and end the nightmare for Tri-City.

Coakley won't soon forget this one.

"We made some errors out there, didn't we?" Coakley said. "We were giving them extra outs every inning, and you just can't do that. I was afraid it would catch up with me.

"You can look at my scorebook and see the sixth or seventh innings are the ones that always haunt us. There is something about our team that we can't get all the way through."

Tri-City scored in the first inning when Jamie Hogan doubled off Sherry and one out later scored from third on an Eric Gray sacrifice fly.

The Triplets took a 2-0 advantage in the fifth when Todd "Butch" Hinterser went down for a low pitch and stroked it over the 327 mark in the right field alley for a two-out home run.

"It's been a rough, tough year," Coakley said of his team, which finished 9-13 in District 22 play.

NOTES: Collinsville moves on to play Edwardsville in the first round of the double elimination tournament Saturday in Edwardsville. Alton will play Highland in the other game. Winners will play each other Sunday, and the two losers will meet. The tournament will wind up Wednesday, with the winner playing the South Division champion in a best-of-three series July 26-27.

In the South, champion Marissa will take on the fourth place team (that single elimination tournament is not yet completed), while Fairview Heights plays East St. Louis. The district champion moves on to the Fifth Division tournament in Trenton July 31-Aug. 1.

The state tournament is Aug. 7-10 in Moline.

Granite Sheet Metal in playoffs; 9-0 victory comes to abrupt halt

GRANITE CITY — The Granite Sheet Metal baseball team probably had visions of how they were going to clinch a berth in the playoffs.

There were probably several different versions of that dream, but it would be safe to say none of them matched what actually happened.

GSM clinched second place in its division with a 9-0 win over Thomas Boothe of St. Louis Friday at Varsity Field. Mike Krausz threw a no-hitter for Granite and Craig Dippel had three RBI, but the game ended before Jim Nelson's team could have too much fun.

Sports briefs

SIUE has junior tennis tourney

SIUE will serve as host when the St. Louis District of the United States Tennis Association conducts the 1986 Junior Championship Tournament July 25-26 on the SIUE varsity courts.

The tournament, which will include both a championship and consolation bracket, is open to all tennis players ages 10 to 18 years of age. It will include brackets for singles and doubles for all age groups, as well as a mixed doubles competition for 16, 17 and 18-year-olds.

Cost of the four-day tournament is set at $10 per event. Trophies will be presented to finalists, as well as consolation champions, in each of the 20 classifications.

For additional information, or to obtain registration materials, contact Bob Meyers, Campus Box 1129, SIUE, Edwardsville, Ill. 62026, or call the SIUE athletic department at 692-2871.

the way the game started. After Krausz set the visitors down in order in the first, GSM went to work against Thoman Boothe starter Kandy White.

Jeff Grote walked and Tom Brown got an infield hit. Then Kory Burton skied a double to deep left, scoring Grote with the first run. John Moad walked to load the bases and designated hitter Danny Robertson singled up the middle for another run.

After White got two strikes on Dippel, the catcher lined a double over the head of Mike Mattson in left field to plate Burton and Moad for a 4-0 lead. Frank Robinson relieved White and got two outs before Grote singled in left to score Robertson. But Allen Norton, pinch-running for Dippel, was cut down at the plate trying to score and the inning was over.

Grante added a sixth run in the second on an RBI single by Dippel, scoring Burton, who had walked.

GSM added a final three-run salvo in the fourth when Burton and Moad singled and Dippel walked to load the bases. Rich Nelson hit a sacrifice fly to center to make it 7-0, and when the throw back to second got away, Moad and pinch-runner Norton advanced to third and second, respectively.

Jason Smith's single to right scored both of them.

The win left Grante with a 3-1 record in division play and a 7-8 record overall. They clinched second place in their division and are assured of a first in the league playoffs, which are scheduled for July 28-Aug. 4 at the Ballwin athletic fields.

"That's all we've been talking about lately," Nelson said of the playoffs. "That's probably why they came out so fast tonight. We hadn't been hitting much lately, so that was nice to see."

Dippel now leads the team in RBI with 11 and has his average over .300. Moad leads the team in hitting with a .421 average.

For Krausz, 4-2, it was his first no-hitter.

"I don't know if four innings is an official game, but you have to give him credit for a no-hitter."

Tennis tourney August 15-17

The Granite City Park District will sponsor a tennis tournament Aug. 15-17.

The tournament is sanctioned by the United States Tennis Association and the Missouri Valley Tennis Association. Entries close at 5 p.m. Aug. 12.

Play is limited to three events. Singles fees are $5. Doubles fees are $4 per player, per event. Trophies will go to the winner and runner-up in each event.

For more information, call the Wilson Park Office at 877-3059 or 451-7553.

Park baseball tournaments are August 2-3

The Granite City Park District will sponsor baseball tournaments Aug. 2-3.

Nelson said, "Actually, I've seen Mike with a lot better stuff than he had tonight."

Friday's game was the start of a busy weekend for the team, which is making up four games lost either because of rain or problems with the lights. The June 30 game with Thoman Boothe was stopped because of a combination of rain and lighting problems with GSM ahead 6-1.

After a regularly scheduled game at Maryland Heights Saturday night, GSM hosts Imperial Sunday afternoon at 12:30 and Imperial comes in for a 4 p.m. game.

The Imperial game is a makeup of the July 9 game that was stopped because of malfunctioning lights at Varsity Field when GSM had a 7-4 lead in the fourth inning. The T.A. McGuire game was rained out July 1.

On Monday night, GSM hosts league leader Ballwin (17-0) in a 7:30 game, although the game will actually be Ballwin's home game. The game was rained out July 11 in Ballwin, but they don't have their field available Monday.

After that, GSM will look for playoff wins. And, as illustrated Friday, they'll take them any way they can get them.

It doesn't cost much to Stay Cool.

A 5 pound bag of ice can cool enough lemonade for a family reunion picnic. It's inexpensive — only about 89 cents a bag. And it lasts 90 minutes, your cost of staying cool is a penny a minute. That's a bargain, until you consider that you can air condition a typical home for much less than a penny a minute. Or about $2.10 a day. Any way you look at it, air conditioning is a bargain...and it's the cool efficient way to stay cool and comfortable in the summertime.

If you have questions about using air conditioning efficiently and affordably, contact your Marketing Advisor at Illinois Power.
